Maine and Alabama, After Spectacular Voyage, Now Under-

going Repairs. VESSELS BELTED THE GLOBE

When Maine Leaves Portsmouth She Will Be Flagship of Atlantic Squadron.

PORTSMOUTH. N. H., October 19,—
The United States battleship Maine, after making a circuit of the globe, arrived here to-day. As the battleship was warped into the dock the "jackles" on board and those stationed in the yard gave vent to prolonged cheers.

The battleship Maine, on swinging to anchor at the Portsmouth Navy-Yard to-day, ended, together with the battleship Alabama, which arrived at New York to-day, the most spectacular around-the-world cruise ever made by a first-class modern warship. During the voyage, which was started from Hampton Roads, and which consumed 308 days, the two vessels covered mere than $5,000 miles.

308 days, the two vessels covered more than 35,000 miles.

Out as Fingchip Later.

The battleship will remain at Portsmouth twenty-six days for docking, and will then further demonstrate her seaworthiness by going on the North Atlantic station as the fingship for a month or two. Following this she will go out of commission, after three years of arduous service.

Delight over the home-coming was expressed on the face of every "jackie" seen to-day. A clever machinist's

The Maine brought home before the mast a large number of short-time men from the other vessels of the fleet. Seventy of them left as soon as possilide after the ship docked.

While nearly 200 of the men before the mast made the entire world run, only twelve of the officers were with the battleship from the start. The Maine went out from Hampton Roads under command of Captain G. B. Harber, At Manila Captain Harber relinquished command to Captain Caperton, who brought the ship home.

HAD NOT JURISDICTION

Appeal of Herman Billik, Sentenced to Die, Thrown Out of Court.
WASHINGTON, D. C., October 19.—
The Supreme Court of the United States to-day dismissed, for want of jurisdiction, the appeal of Herman Billik, from the decision of Judge Landis, of the United States Circuit Court for the Northern District of Illinois, denying the petition for a writ of habeas corthe petition for a writ of habeas cor-pus in the case of Billik, who is under pus in the case of Brilik, who is under sentence of death in Chicago on the charge of murdering a number of people.

The petition was based on the pleathat Billik had been denied a constitutional right by the failure of the trial court to ask him if he had anything to say why the sentence of death should not be passed upon him. By taking the case into the United States courts on a petition for a writ of habeas corpus and appealing to the Supreme Court from Judge Landis's denial of a writ, he obtained a year's delay.

delay. Billik was a necromancer, and it was Billic was a necrolinated, and it was charged that he obtained undue control over his victims by practicing upon their credulity. A number of offenses were charged against him, but the most serious was that of murdering three or four members of the Vzral family of Chicago, after robbing them.
